TRINITY WINS FROM NORWICH UNIVERSITY.

The football team won the opening game from Norwich University on Trinity Field Saturday afternoon, 3 to 0. The game marked the opening of the season for both teams and was not particularly thrilling at any stage. Hyland's drop kick was the only score. Neither team played brilliantly and fumbling was frequent on both sides. The teams were more evenly matched than a year ago, when Trinity won 27 to 0.

Only four Trinity veterans were in the lineup: Captain Woolley, Breslin, Jackson and Nordstrom. The half-backs did not exhibit great strength and the loss of Cole and Vizner of last season's team was keenly felt throughout the game. Jessen and Purdy are both new men. The center of the line from tackle to tackle was the most formidable part of the Trinity machine and in the backfield Hyland and Jarvis played well.

Most of the playing was in the Norwich team's territory, and the Trinity goal line was not in any great danger at any stage of the game. From the start it looked as though chances favored the Blue and Gold eleven. Neither side used the forward pass successfully.

The only score was the three points made by Trinity on Hyland's drop kick in the last part of the first quarter. McDonald made a short punt-out from his 18-yard line, and Jarvis gained five yards. Hyland dropped back and made a clean drop kick from the 27-yard line.

Jarvis ran the team well from quarterback and played a fast game. Bishop and Martin were strong on the offensive for Norwich. Trinity was penalized for a total of fifteen yards during the game and the Norwich team did not receive any penalties. Jackson and Purdy prevented substantial gains by Norwich by intercepting two forward passes.

Trinity had a chance to score in the first part of the fourth quarter, but after several gains, an attempted forward pass failed and the ball went to Norwich on downs. The summary:

Norwich University		Trinity

BLOODY MONDAY.

Following the usual custom, the bulletin board rush was held Monday afternoon. At four o'clock the sophomores lined up around the board. Hardly had they taken their position when the freshmen rushed and Fox, '20, touched the board in eight seconds.

The judges were Rock, '17, Macrum, '17, and Rabinovitz, '17.

At 7.15 o'clock the rope rush was scheduled to take place. When the judges came it was found that the sophomores had broken into the room where Bond, the freshman treasurer, had hidden the rope, and removed it. The judges ordered that the rope must be returned by the scheduled time. Promptly at 7.15 the sophomores banded together opposite the mob of freshmen. They were about fifty yards apart. At a signal from the timers, both classes rushed at each other. Soon the spot was covered by little heaps of struggling men. Shortly both classes began to carry off their captives and placed them bound hand and foot before the judges.

The freshmen had a great advantage in numbers. They outnumbered the sophomores 2 to 1. The latter, however, put up a good fight. To those present the scrap seemed to be the most spirited one in years. During the 20 minutes of allotted time the freshmen tied up 25 sophomores and the sophomores tied up 6 freshmen.

The timers were Shulthies and Jackson, '18. The judges were Woolley, '17, Clement, '17, Jones, '17, and Parker, '17.

After the scrap the entire college body headed by a band marched down town. Dr. Luther made a short address in acknowledgment of the loud cheers given him as the parade passed his house. According to custom, the procession halted under the "portico" of the Capitol, in order to sing "'Neath the Elms."

A college smoker given by the freshmen was held at Harry Bond's.

FALL TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The annual fall tennis tournament for the championship of the college will start Thursday, October 5. The entry list can be found on the bulletin board, and it is hoped that a large number of men will help to make the tournament a success. The entrance fee is five cents for the singles and fifty cents for each pair in the doubles, payable in advance to Kramer, '17, or Harding, '18. No entries will be received after 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. The drawings will be posted Thursday morning, and the first round in singles and doubles must be completed by the following Thursday. It is to be regretted that the college courts are not in condition for play, so all matches must be played on the public courts in Hartford. It is desirable for every man to do his best

COLLEGE MEETING.

On Friday evening last a meeting of the college body was called in the Public Speaking room by Acting-Secretary of the Senate, Theron B. Clement. The purpose was to elect a president of the College Body, which office was vacant, due to the failure of president-elect McKay to return to college this year. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Clement, who stated briefly its purpose and who voiced the regret of the entire student body over the non-return of Mr. McKay. In spite of his absence, however, he was given seven long Trins.

The nominations for president were then opened. Messrs. Woolley, Rock, Jones, and Macrum were nominated. Mr. Woolley was elected on the third ballot. He then took charge of the meeting.

Brief speeches were made by Mr. Woolley and Coach Cole on the football situation. After some cheering for both captain and coach, it was moved, seconded and carried, that a smoker be held in the Union on Tuesday evening, October 3, to welcome Dr. Luther, and that an assessment be made to defray the expense.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

SENATE MINUTES.

Latin Room,
Wednesday noon.

The meeting was called to order by the acting secretary, who acted as chairman of the same.

Doctor Luther addressed the Senate in reference to the Chapel rush. He suggested plans for relieving conditions which marred the Chapel service. The rush from Chapel and the accompanying shedding of clothes in the Chapel by those who were to enter the rush was a shock to the guests at the service.

The Senate discussed the matter and decided to order that all students should be given the opportunity to change their clothes after Chapel; and that, when in the opinion of the members of the Senate present, those who did not care for the scrap had left and when both of the underclasses were ready, a signal should be given for the running of the gauntlet. It was decided that there should be only three rushes after the running of the gauntlet.

Judges were appointed for the bulletin board rush and rope rush and given power to make necessary rules and time requirements.

It was decided to call a college meeting for 7.15 Friday evening, at which time a President of the College Senate should be elected.

The meeting then adjourned.

T. B. CLEMENT,
Acting Secretary.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

After a year's absence, Doctor Luther has again taken up his duties as President. The college was fortunate during the past year to have the services of Professor Perkins as Acting President. Professor Perkins was well liked by all that came in contact with him and discharged his duties with care and dispatch. But, of course, as Acting President, it would be impossible for anyone to take the initiative in out-of-the-ordinary run of things. The Tripod voices the feelings of the entire college in extending to Professor Perkins their appreciation of his work of last year.

Filled with renewed health and vigor, Doctor Luther has again taken up the reins. The college body rejoices in his return. They feel after a year's rest Doctor Luther will give over his regained health to the advancement and further glory of Trinity. And believing this, we may all be optimistic as to the future.

The Tripod congratulates Mr. Woolley upon his election as President of the Senate. It was with great regret that we learned of Mr. McKay's intention of not returning to college. Mr. Woolley is, however, a fit successor to Mr. McKay, and the Tripod wishes him the best of success.

OPENING SERVICE OF COLLEGE.

Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, the Chapel was filled. Alumni, friends of the college, the faculty and their wives, and the college students assembled once again to hear the beautiful opening service of Trinity College.

Doctor Luther read the evening prayer, assisted by the Rev. J. J. McCook, who read the lesson for the day. Following evening prayer, Doctor Luther made the address of welcome to the freshman class and gave them some sage advice as to their life and studies while at Trinity. The service was then closed by the singing of a hymn.

The freshmen retired to the Latin room to change their clothes for the rush and the sophomores scampered to their rooms. When the upperclassmen formed in double lines and the underclassmen were ready, a signal was given and the freshmen ran the gauntlet and were rushed three times by the sophomores.

After this rather forceful introduction of the freshmen to the sophomores, all the classes got together and gave their class yells. The whole ceremony was brought to an effective close by the singing of "Neath the Elms."

FRESHMAN BIBLES.

Old Custom Again Renewed.

A young man starting college in a strange city and among strangers finds himself sadly up against a proposition that is indeed perplexing; how to find out about the laws, traditions, and various intercollegiate activities.

The Y. M. C. A. renewed their custom of getting out Freshman Bibles this year. In this little book is stored a wealth of knowledge and advice to Freshmen: what they can and cannot do, and a department devoted to the various undergraduate organizations of the College. The college calendar is a wonderful asset, giving the dates and in particular featuring the formalities concerning various class scraps, banquets, smokers, and the traditional activities.

Credit for all of this work must be given to the editorial and business staff of the Freshman Handbook. The editor-in-chief is Mr. John McK. Mitchell, '18.

ALUMNI NOTES.

'09—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Buchanan, on August 23, 1916.

'16—N. J. George, Jr., was drowned at Islip, L. I., September, 1916.

'16—George Gordon Nilsson is teaching at the Fessenden School, Cambridge, Mass.

'16—William Lawrence Peck has accepted a position as instructor in Latin at the Trinity Chapel School, New York.

'17—Ralph Warren Storrs, ex-'17, has entered Harvard Medical School.

SMOKER.

At a meeting of the College Body held Friday, it was voted to give a smoker to Dr. Luther in honor of his return as President, after a year's absence. The smoker was to be held in the Union Tuesday night. In order to defray the expense, it was voted that an assessment of twenty-five cents be levied on every man in college, payable to any member of the Senate. Every member of the college body should turn out.

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

The Rev. Dr. Luther preached on Sunday morning in the College Chapel. The students turned out well to hear once again the powerful sermons of their President.

TRINITY MEN ON BORDER.

The calling out of the National Guard has somewhat affected Trinity's enrollment this fall, as several of the undergraduates are compelled to remain with their regiments on the border. Most of the absent ones are members of the Connecticut National Guard. Little, J. Barnwell, and Baldwin, all members of 1917, are with Troop B of the cavalry, while Crehore, '17, and Kirkby, '17, are with the First Connecticut Ambulance Company, stationed at Nogales, Ariz. Simonson, '18, is with the Connecticut Machine Gun Company, J. P. Hahn, '18, is with the South Carolina Infantry, and G. A. Zabriskie, one of this year's entering class, is with the 7th Regiment, New York National Guard.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST PARALYSIS.

All students are required to report to Dr. H. C. Swan, the physical director, for examination on account of the paralysis epidemic. Those students who are found to come from infected regions must be examined every day until the quarantine time is up. There are no symptoms which might cause the fear of a case here. The examinations are simply a precautionary measure.

FRESHMAN CLASS MEETING.

The Freshman Class held their first meeting at 12.45 last Friday. They elected the following organization:—President, A. V. R. Tilton; Vice-President, F. R. Fox; Secretary, A. P. Bond.

The class was addressed by the presidents of the Sophomore and Junior Classes and plans were laid for Bloody Monday.

SOPHOMORES ELECT OFFICERS.

At a meeting of the Sophomore Class on October 2, the following officers were elected: President, Stanley Howarth Leeke; Vice-President, Harold Brickley; Secretary and Treasurer, Theodore F. Evans.
